MUSTARD MANSION
Smyrna, Kent County, Delaware.
Mt. Vernon Street, towards West End.

Owner: William Stayton.

Date of Erection: Built for Peterson Mustard.

Present Condition: Well kept. The frame structure on east, the window sash and lights are additions and the change in the character of the brick work in the third string front indicates an alteration of some kind.

Number of Stories: Basement and three stories.

Materials of Construction: Stone steps, main walls brick. The doorway and window decorative key-blocks and flat arches are all of wood.

Additional Data: The use of non-constructive key-blocks and arches of wood, purely surface decorations, imitating stone work, is not uncommon in this district. It can be seen in Belmont Hall and in several buildings, near or in Smyrna.
